

We can help.

Are you...
Is someone in your household

living with HIV or AIDS?

You may be eligible for

Free Legal Services

HALC HIV/AIDS
Law Consortium

Free Legal Services

If you and/or someone in your household is living with HIV or AIDS, you may be eligible for free legal services.

We can assist with many civil (not criminal) legal problems, such as:

- housing
- public benefits
- Social Security
- debts, student loans and bankruptcy
- wills, living wills and powers of attorney
- custody, guardianships and foster care
- confidentiality and medical privacy
- consumer issues
- divorce
- discrimination
- Medicaid and home health care
- legal name changes

and other issues.

Call us:
1-800-462-2922 ext. 329

If you have a civil legal problem, please call the HALC attorney at the Legal Aid Society at this number.

We will ask you some questions to determine eligibility. If you are eligible and if we accept your case, it will be handled by either:

- The Legal Aid Society or
- Albany Law School Health Law Project

ALBANY LAW SCHOOL

The HIV/AIDS Law Consortium (HALC) is a collaboration of the Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York and the Albany Law School's Health Law Project. HALC was established in 2005 to provide free legal services to individuals and their families who are living with or affected by the disease. HALC, which is funded by the AIDS Institute of the New York State Department of Health, provides legal assistance on a broad range of civil legal issues.

printed on recycled paper