Upstate New York Immigration Law Project

What is the program's purpose?

The Immigration Intake Unit of the Legal Aid Society, in partnership with the Legal Aid Society of Rochester, will provide high quality and vigorous representation in immigration-related matters to persons residing in Northeastern New York.

Where can I get help?

It depends on your immigration status. LASNNY (Albany office) can assist you or refer you to the Legal Aid Society of Rochester, who can help even undocumented immigrants.

What does the program provide?

The program will provide intake, referral, advice or representation on a variety of immigration matters. For example:

- Family immigration
- Immigration relief for battered spouses and crime victims
- Naturalization
- Verification of immigration status
- Asylum
- Removal, deportation
- Community Legal Education

Will this program help me?

Clients of this program should:

- Be financially eligible
- Be residents of service area
- Have an immigration problem.

Our Mission:

The Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York provides effective, free civil legal services and education to and advocacy for people with low income or other barriers to accessing the legal system. We secure basic needs, protect and preserve legal rights, provide equal access to justice and seek fairness and dignity for our clients.
