SPECIAL EDUCATION TASK FORCE WEBINAR

January 2021 Training

Behavioral Health & Hard to Place, Hard to Serve

Part 1

With regulations governing the safety and health of all students, those students with mental health challenges are sometimes very difficult to serve. This training will discuss what social emotional health means, what struggles various types of schools have in serving students with complex needs, and how social emotional behavior can be addressed through remote learning and while maintaining compliance with laws and regulations.

Presenters: Alitza Shoss, LCSW, School Social Worker, Schalmont Middle School
 Rose Fera, Clinical Supervisor, School at Northeast (Northern Rivers)
 Steve Oill, Parent/Certified Family Peer Advocate, Northern Rivers Family of Services
