

TenantHelpNY.org: Helping New Yorkers Avoid Eviction

Understand Your Legal Rights During COVID-19

TenantHelpNY.org is a new online resource created to help tenants in New York understand their housing rights during the COVID-19 public health crisis. This new initiative will help address the variety of legal challenges many New York tenants will face over the coming year.

Other Helpful Information

Through TenantHelpNY.org, a mobile-friendly website, tenants will have access to:

- Plain language guides for tenants and the general public, developed in collaboration with legal service organizations;
- Know your rights housing information on the COVID-19 crisis, discrimination, disability inclusion, and eviction process;
- A legal help directory to connect tenants with volunteer attorney programs; and,
- A list of Frequently Asked Questions about available COVID-19 housing protections.

About

The TenantHelpNY project is funded by the COVID-19 Tenant Legal Assistance Initiative grant, a program that was launched by New York Attorney General Letitia James to support housing during COVID-19.

The development of TenantHelpNY.org was created in partnership with the six grantees under this initiative: Erie County Bar Association Volunteer Lawyers Project, Legal Aid Society of Mid-New York, Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York, Legal Assistance of Western New York, Nassau Suffolk Law Services, and Legal Services of the Hudson Valley.

Contact

For more information, comments, or questions about this initiative, please contact: Veronica Dunap, New York Program Manager at Pro Bono Net, at vdunlap@probono.net.

