Please join Christen Smith, Staff Attorney, Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York and Tina Beauparant, Regional Manager / Education Specialist, Parent to Parent of NYS, as they present on Compensatory Education: Is time running out for make-up education services? Learn how to preserve your child's right to compensatory education.

This presentation is designed to teach parents and guardians of students with disabilities how to advocate for compensatory education services before time runs out. Topics will include:

- a brief overview of compensatory education law, including time limitations and appeal rights,
- how to assess whether your child might qualify, and
- guidance on how to request and advocate for compensatory education

If you have an urgent civil legal matter, please call LASNNY at 833-628-0087 for an intake.
